

Charles Ives Music Festival Chamber Music Weekend Workshop November 2 & 3, 2019

Featuring graduates of the Juilliard School and other major conservatories as Artist-Faculty

Enrollment Deadline: Tuesday, October 8th

The Charles Ives Music Festival at the WCYO invites to its Chamber Music Weekend Workshop all instrumentalists ages 21 and under who have a driven passion for music, are committed to the pursuit of a high level of music performance, and have at least two years experience on their instrument. Throughout the weekend, participants will work extensively with Artist-faculty in a unique and inspiring artistic environment to develop their artistry and musicianship. CIMF is led by artistic director, Paul Frucht, and associate artistic director, Jon Cziner.

General Information:

- The Workshop runs 9:30 AM – 5:00 PM both Saturday and Sunday at Scotts Ridge Middle School in Ridgefield, CT. The participant concert will take place at 3:30 PM on Sunday at Scotts Ridge Middle School.
- Each participant will rehearse in one chamber music group culminating in a concert performance on Sunday. Each group will include at least one Artist-Faculty member who will lead all rehearsals throughout the weekend. Participants may also have the opportunity to perform solo works as part of the concert.
- Artist-Faculty for the workshop will include flutist Katie Althen, violinist/violist George Meyer, violist Molly Goldman, cellist Mitch Lyon and pianist Mika Sasaki.
- Participants will receive a ticket to the CIMF artist concert in the evening of November 2nd, featuring Guest Artists Julian Schwarz (cello) and Marika Bournaki (piano).
- Participants will attend a master class led by the Artist-Faculty and Guest Artists focusing on both solo and chamber works. Other specialized group activities may be included as well.
- Tuition for participation in the Weekend Workshop is $225.00 for non-WCYO members and $175.00 for WCYO members.
