

CIMF Adult Chamber Music Workshop

August 11-14, 2021

Featuring graduates of the Juilliard School and other major conservatories as Artist-Faculty

Final Enrollment Deadline: APRIL 30, 2021

The Charles Ives Music Festival at the WCYO invites all instrumentalists ages 22 and over who have a passion for music, are interested in expanding their chamber music experience and exploring the repertoire, and have at least two years of experience on their instrument. Throughout the workshop, participants will work extensively with Artist-Faculty in a unique and inspiring artistic environment to develop their artistry and musicianship. CIMF is led by Artistic Director Paul Frucht.

General Information:

- All events will take place at First Congregational Church in Ridgefield in unless otherwise noted.
- The workshop begins with a concert on Wednesday, August 11th . A CIMF welcome reception will follow.
- Beginning on August 12th, participants will each rehearse in one chamber music group culminating in a concert performance on Saturday, August 14th. Each group will include at least one Artist-Faculty member who will lead all rehearsals throughout the workshop.
- Participants will each receive one 45-minute private lesson with an Artist-Faculty member.
- Participants will attend in master classes led by the Artist-Faculty focusing on both solo and chamber works. Participants will also attend specialized seminars focusing on repertoire study, music theory, music history, and contemporary issues related to concert music.
- Participants will receive a professional, archival recording of their performances with their chamber groups.
- Tuition for Workshop is $500.00. Financial aid is available.
- Included in tuition are tickets to all CIMF artist concerts throughout the workshop and the prior CIMF week, which will feature guest artists including the Ulysses Quartet.
